

□ Planned Courses

- A total of 4 courses will be offered: 2 courses in the English track and 2 courses in the Korean track.
- Students choose and register for a total of 2 courses, regardless of the area or English/Korean track.

No.	Track	Course	Course Introduction
1	English Track	글로벌 경영 International Business	(1) Studying the overview of international business. (2) Understanding the international aspects of various functional areas of business, including management, marketing, finance, and human resource management. (3) Topics include global trade and investment environment; global monetary system; and strategy and structure of international business.
2		세계시민 SDGs Global Citizen SDGs	(1) Understanding the processes of critical inquiry and applying them in the service of global citizenship. (2) Developing an understanding of mindfulness, empathy, and compassion, and using these as tools to enhance one's emotional well-being and social relationships. (3) Demonstrating pro-social behavior towards others, including those of a different races, ethnicities, cultures, genders, or nationalities. (4) Developing an understanding of global citizenship.
3	Korean Track	미디어로 보는 한국사회 Korean Society in Media	(1) Understanding and explaining the purpose of studying Korean media. (2) Analyzing Korea and Korean society. (3) Comparing and analyzing the situation in your own country while observing Korean society in Korean media. (4) Through Korean media, you can explore the modern history of Korea and the key phases of each era.

4		한국어와 한국문화 Korean language and Korean Culture	(1) This course aims to help international students improve their Korean language skills while also introducing them to Korean daily culture and campus life. (2) Helping students understand Korean campus life and daily culture. It can also improve Korean language for foreign students. (3) Helping foreign students improve their listening, writing, reading, and speaking skills in Korean.