HARMONI 2024

Harmonious Islam in Indonesia

26 February - 1 March 2024

TERM OF REFERENCE
HARMONII – Harmonious Islam in Indonesia

26 February – 1 March 2024

BACKGROUND

Indonesia with its vast archipelago and multitude of ethnicities, languages, and cultures, stands as a nation celebrated for its incredible diversity. The diversity in Indonesia is undoubtedly a double-edged sword, presenting both challenges and blessings. The key lies in fostering understanding, respect, and collaboration among the diverse communities to transform into a collective strength that propels the nation forward. Ultimately, the journey toward a harmonious and inclusive Indonesia requires recognizing and celebrating the richness that diversity brings.

Indonesia's cultural landscape is greatly shaped with Islam playing a predominant role, encompassing a majority of its population. The coexistence of various ethnicities and cultures under the embracing umbrella of Islam reflects the nation's ability to celebrate differences while fostering unity. Islamic principles of tolerance and communal harmony have historically guided interactions among different religious and cultural groups, contributing significantly to Indonesia's social fabric.

The practice of Islam in Indonesia is characterized by a unique blend of local traditions, reflecting the country's diversity. Despite being a majority, Muslims in Indonesia exemplify a spirit of inclusivity and tolerance, respecting the beliefs and practices of other religions and ethnicities. This inclusive approach not only allows for peaceful coexistence but also serves as a model for fostering mutual understanding and respect among diverse communities.

Harmonious Islam in Indonesia (HARMONII) is an Online Short Program conducted by the Faculty of Islamic Studies at Sultan Agung Islamic University (UNISSULA) Indonesia. This program aims to give a knowledge, insight, and hands-on discussion on how Islam is practiced harmoniously in Indonesia.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of HARMONII are:

1. Provide a comprehensive exploration of Islamic principles and practices in Indonesia.
2. Foster a deeper understanding of Islamic teaching in Indonesia that promote interfaith harmony and celebrate the peaceful coexistence of various cultures.
3. Promote positive dialogues and understanding within the context of Indonesia's cultural as well as religious diversity.
