

Counseling Resources for International Students

Counseling Center

Studying far away from your country, did you have good time?

The school days are full of uncertainties, you must miss your old friends, family...

If you feel down and need someone to talk to...

The Counseling Center will always be with you!

We invite you to contact us flexibly and apply for different counseling resources when you have a need for psychological care.

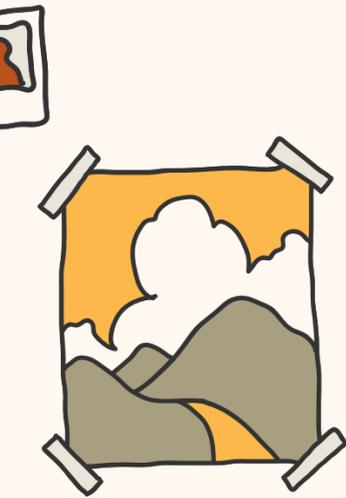

International students speak different languages, so the counseling center provides you two languages, English and Chinese, counseling, consulting, and topic seminars for you to choose from.

Due to the manpower limitation of professional counselors who provide English services, the current English service is provided by our part-time psychologist.

The main service time for English counseling is from 6 pm to 10 pm on Tuesday evening.

Counseling Resources

Individual Counseling

Individual Counseling is a kind of cooperative relationship. It mainly is a process of problem solving, adapting to life, self growth and development, and the process is involved in personal issues. Counseling time is fifty minutes each time per week, and in principle, there are eight times at most for each semester.

Counseling Resources

One on one Consultation

The main difference from counseling is that consultation is mainly a process of providing information, suggestions, problem solving, and the process is less involved in personal issues of the person being consulted.
